

Buncombe Heritage Historical Society - Volunteer Reimbursement Policy

Effective January 2025. Maintained by the Bookkeeper; approved by the Director.

Scope

Volunteers may be reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred on Society business: exhibit and reception costs, archival supplies, approved mileage, and vendor charges fronted on the Society's behalf. Personal expenses are not reimbursable.

How a claim is built

Claims are assembled per calendar month and submitted to the Director ahead of the monthly board meeting. Each claim lists the date, vendor, purpose, and amount for every item, with receipts or invoices attached.

Authoritative amounts on vendor invoices

When a vendor invoice carries a handwritten adjustment initialed by the Director (F. Dillard), the adjusted amount written by the Director is the authoritative reimbursable amount, even where it differs from the printed line total. A printed total is superseded by a Director-initialed adjustment.

Avoiding duplicate reimbursement

Before adding an item, confirm against the Society's books that it has not already been reimbursed. Items already settled in QuickBooks under a volunteer's vendor record are excluded from a new claim.

Illegible or incomplete receipts

If a receipt cannot be read, note it as illegible and do not assign it a dollar amount. Do not estimate or reconstruct an unreadable amount into the claim total.

Sign-off

The Director reviews and routes the claim. Volunteers do not post entries to the Society's books directly.
